Dear Valued Resident,

Attached please find our 'security deposit dispute form'. You will want to fill out this form fully and return to your property manager.

We do our best to complete all security deposit dispositions fairly and in accordance with state law, but we do make mistakes.

We take your below dispute seriously and if we made an error we will correct it. Your property manager will give an honest review and assessment of your below comments, which will then be reviewed and discussed to determine our response. Please be sure to include any photos, emails, or other items you think should be reviewed.

We thank you for your tenancy and we promise that we will review your below comments and respond fairly and timely.

Respectfully,

Sunbelt Properties
